The 31st Annual Tennessee Iris Festival is just around the corner. Preparations are being made to ensure that this year's celebration is the best ever! Traditional festival favorites are returning and we are excited to introduce some new additions to this year's festival line-up. The excitement will build as crowds of visitors enjoy the variety of shows and special events scheduled throughout the week concluding with an action packed Friday and Saturday in Dresden's court square.

You are invited to be a part of one of our biggest events, “The Tennessee Iris Festival Marketplace”. 2010 is shaping up to be another SOLD OUT YEAR at the Iris Festival Marketplace! Fine artists, creative craftspeople, skilled artisans, local specialty businesses, non-profit organizations and seller of antiques, gifts and quality manufactured items are invited to exhibit at this event. The Marketplace takes place in the most desirable of locations...the heart of downtown Dresden's court square. This location is high traffic and in the center of the action. The Marketplace opens Friday evening during the Music Fest/Annual Picnic. With the expected attendance at the Music Fest, the festive atmosphere on the square is ideal for marketplace success! The fun continues on Saturday!

Please accept our invitation to participate in the festival and allow us to celebrate the rich culture and creative talents of our neighbors throughout the region. Booth space is limited and will be assigned upon the receipt of your application and entry fee. If you are interested in participating, it is recommended that you submit your application and entry fee as soon as possible. Questions can be directed to the event's chairperson, Toya Bell, (731) 364-5777 or toya3@frontiernet.net.

We look forward to seeing you at the Tennessee Iris Festival!

Sincerely,

Toya Bell
